LOCAL UM STUDENT TAKES SKILLS TO WORKPLACE

MISSOULA, Mont. --

Mary Olenick of Cody, Wyo., a graduate student in business and accounting at The University of Montana, put her skills to work summer semester in an internship through UM's Center for Work-Based Learning. She worked as a staff accountant for Moss Adams LLP in Beaverton, Ore., preparing taxes and doing audits.

Olenick graduated from Cody High School in 1996. Her parents are Steve and Karen Olenick.

Work-Based Learning's internship program helps students integrate their academic education with job experience by developing work opportunities and coordinating placement activities with employers and faculty advisers. It serves about 1,800 students a year, placing 400 to 500 of them as interns throughout Montana and the nation in more than 35 fields of employment.
